Three sisters have died in a gory accident at Breeze a drinking spot close to St Augustine College in the Central Region, MyNewsGh.com has confirmed.

According to what this portal gathered, the deceased persons were among five occupants of the private vehicle including a mother, her son with his two sisters and his girlfriend.

But the vehicle driven by the younger one among the three ladies was reported to have burst a tyre resulting in the accident.

According to eyewitnesses, the driver lost control when the tyre burst leading to the vehicle somersaulting severally before coming to a halt but before other road users rescued the occupants and rushed them to the hospital, the two sisters and the girlfriend of the male occupant died on the spot.

The mother and her son who sustained severe injuries are currently on admission at the Cape Coast Teaching Hospital

Meanwhile, the bodies of the deceased persons have been deposited at the morgue of the same facility according to the Cape Coast Police
